About Us

For 400 years, the Aldenham Estate, on which Home Farm Glamping stands, has been proudly curated and preserved by the Gibbs family.

Owner Jess believes in protecting her family's patch of green belt land by putting it to better use: Preventing it from neglect or becoming redundant; bringing it back to life by reenergising it; making it relevant, helpful and easy to understand for future generations. Home Farm Glamping was born out of a passion for sharing the gift of space and nature, for friends and families to reconnect and to cherish the slow pace of life.

Our site in Elstree, well inside the M25 and just 15 miles from Marble Arch, means that Home Farm Glamping provides the ideal location for London-based couples looking for a country or festival feel wedding with easy connections to the city.

Since opening our doors in 2015, we have hosted many weddings, each unique in their aesthetic, format and size. With the latest addition of our woodland stage, where in 2021 we hosted musicians James Bay, Jack Garratt, Freya Ridings and Nick Mulvey, we can now offer couples the option of saying their vows in this magical setting, graced by folk royalty, or under our mighty oak tree.

The Venue

BLISSFUL GREENBELT

Our peaceful site is set on 150 acres of private, green belt land, with views across the meadows and our famous focal oak tree framing our site.

LAKE & GROUNDS

Your wedding hire will give you exclusive access to the Home Farm grounds including pristine lakes, magical woodland and open fields - perfect for wedding photos and for treasure hunts!

HOME OF MUSIC

In 2021, the Home Farm team built a rustic stage in our woodland area to host music and cultural performances. The stage might be the perfect location for your ceremony.

THE CEREMONY

We are not a licenced venue so couples will need to legally marry at a nearby place of worship/ registry office and host just the reception or a humanist ceremony at Home Farm.

TIPIS & MARQUEES

Our barn can accommodate up to 80 seated guests and still leave room for a dancefloor. We also own a three hat tipi tent for the real festival experience, which can increase seated capacity to 180.

CATERING

We can put you in touch with a number of experienced wedding caterers, providing personalised menus that will excite and delight your guests. Our catering partners can offer luxury hog roast BBQs to five course fine-dining menus and everything in between. We have also built relationships with a number of food trucks - for couples who would like a more informal catering option, or for a late night visit to fuel your dance floor!
